40 Great Conversation Starters

About

Conversation cards are a fun and easy way to start conversations at home, work, school, etc. These free printable conversation cards contain a variety of topics and will help break the ice and help everyone get to know each other better.

Simply print and cut out the cards. Then there are a variety of ways you can use the cards. One way is to distribute one card to each person and have each participant answer the question on the card in front of them. Another way is to pick cards at random and have everyone answer the same question. If the respondent answers the question in just a few words, you can ask them to elaborate on their answer or ask follow up questions.

Printing Guidelines

- You can print the cards on regular printer paper but for best results, print the cards on cardstock. If these cards will be used a lot, then it is recommended that you laminate them so that they'll last longer.
